

For Immediate Release
July 14, 2004

Media Contact: Jo Diaz
(707) 620-0788
jo@diaz-communications.com

New Website for Suisun Valley Grape Growers Association

Point your browser to www.svgga.com

Suisun Valley, CA – America's 17th AVA,* Suisun Valley Grape Growers Association (SVGGA) has just launched their new Website, www.svgga.com.

For the public, the site provides information with pages dedicated to the following:

- Appellation History
- Appellation Facts
- Appellation Map
- Accolades

For the members, the site provides the following key data:

- Members page, "Who the growers are"
- Buyer / Seller forum, "E-commerce grape sales exchange"

According to SVGGA President Roger King, "The importance of this Website cannot be underscored. It's a critical communications tool, easy to use, and makes a strong statement for our commitment to excellence in grape growing."

With the release of their new look, created by Diaz Communications, comes easy access to information about the Suisun Valley grape growing region.

#

*Sources: Wine Institute at www.iwineinstitute.com/ava/avabydate.asp

SVGGA is an organization whose members are committed to growing ultra premium wine grapes.

Suisun Valley Grape Growers Association * 4160 Suisun Valley Road, Suite E – 141
Suisun Valley, CA 94534 * www.svgga.com * info@svgga.com