Suisun Valley Passport Sunday, April 19, 2009

By Jo Diaz

March 19, 2009

These tickets should sell out soon, based on the $25 fee, so I'm letting you know about this Sunday event in April sooner-rather-than-later.

Suisun Valley Grape Growers Association continues to expand their strategic marketing plan. As a result, wine companies are beginning to proliferate in the valley. The Grape Growers have formed a Vintners Committee; and, as their first event, they're planning a day trip into Suisun Valley for the public to enjoy. Consumers are being invited to taste the excellent wines being produced in Suisun Valley.

Who: Seven wine company locations:

1. Blue Victorian
2. Ledgewood Creek
3. Suisun Valley Wine Co-op
4. Tenbrink Family Winery
5. Vezér Family Vineyards
6. Winterhawk Winery
7. Wooden Valley Winery

When: Sunday ~ April 19, 2009, 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Where: Suisun Valley, California

Details: $25 for the seven sites, $15 for a Designated Driver

- Tickets are available through each winery/tasting room location
- Each site will have a restaurant or catered food included in the ticket price
- Glass and passport to be picked up at place of purchase
- Portion of ticket price will go to North Bay Hospice

Where you purchase your tickets is where you begin; you get your glass and passport, and begin your adventure.

For more information, you can contact me directly at [707] 620-0788 or Email me: jo at diaz-communications.com.

Maybe I'll see you there! I'll be the one with the camera!
